Our nation is faced with more major issues, and is more divided over how we should handle those issues, than at any time I have served in Congress.

Because of the importance of our national security, our financial security, and the future of our health care, I am asking every resident of the 10th Congressional District to share their thoughts with me. Given the thousands of calls, letters, e-mails and personal visits I receive and respond to, I have always been able to stay in touch with the thoughts and interests of the people I have the privilege to represent. Still, I thought it important to give everyone a chance to provide their input at this critical time in our nation's history. As you will see, this survey covers a wide range of topics. By no means, given the limited space, can it cover every matter of concern, so I ask you to share any other questions or comments by contacting my office.

Much has changed in the way we can communicate with each other. With e-mail and access to the internet, there are so many new sources of information available to us. In an effort to better use these resources, I will post the results of my survey on line at www.house.gov/young. Also, I will send you a copy of the final results by mail or e-mail, if you provide me your address. For those providing e-mail addresses, I also will send periodic short questionnaires as important issues of concern come before Congress.

Thank you for taking a few minutes to complete this survey, fold it up, and return it with the preaddressed label facing out. Your views are extremely important to me and I will share them with my colleagues in the House as we debate these important legislative matters.

Let YOUR government know where you stand—stand up and speak out.

Very truly yours,

C. W. Bill Young
Member of Congress
